Update – On-Duty Death of Constable Jennifer Kovach

The Guelph Police Service would like to express our sincere appreciation to the community for the continued support, care and compassion as we mourn the loss of our colleague, Constable Jennifer Kovach.

The Kovach family has generously agreed to a public funeral to celebrate and remember the life of Jennifer. Although details of the funeral continue to be finalized, the funeral will take place on Thursday, March 21 at 11:30am at the Sleeman Centre, 50 Woolwich Street, Guelph.

Members of the community can anticipate further details early next week. Please continue to visit guelphpolice.com and guelph.ca as information will be posted online as well as communicated through our Public Information Officer.

“On behalf of the Police Services Board, I would like to publicly acknowledge the tremendous community support for the Police Service and its members. Your continued support brings a sense of comfort to the Service during this difficult time as they mourn the loss of Constable Kovach” said Judy Sorbara, Chair of the Board.

Members of the community who wish to extend condolences to the Kovach Family may do so by attending GPS Headquarters, 15 Wyndham Street South, and sign a book of condolences or send an online message to jennkovach@police.guelph.on.ca

On March 14, 2013, Constable Jennifer Kovach, a four-year member of the Guelph Police Service died as a result of an on-duty collision while responding to a call for police assistance.
