

Community Meeting Notice

JUNE 12, 2014

BROOKLYN AND COLLEGE HILL HERITAGE CONSERVATION DISTRICT

COMMUNITY MEETING

Planning Services will hold a Community Meeting to provide information and continue discussion of the draft Brooklyn and College Hill Heritage Conservation District Plan and Guidelines. You are invited to attend to provide your comments and have your questions about the district designation answered.

Meeting Date: Tuesday, June 24, 2014
Location: Meeting Room C, 1 Carden Street, City Hall
Time: 6:30pm - 8:30pm

You are invited to attend a Community Meeting hosted by Planning Services staff to discuss the draft Brooklyn and College Hill Heritage Conservation District (HCD) Plan and Guidelines and find out how heritage conservation districts work. Learn what the designation of a heritage district means for you and how the HCD Plan provides guidance to property owners and tenants in and around a district who wish to make alterations or additions to their properties. This is your opportunity to provide comments and have your questions answered regarding the HCD designation and the heritage permit process.

Learn more about:

- The Heritage Permit process – when and how it applies
- What is exempt from heritage permit approval
- How the plan and guidelines apply to heritage and non-heritage properties within the HCD
- How the plan and guidelines apply to properties adjacent to the HCD

A map of the HCD boundary and adjacent properties is shown on the back of this page.

The HCD Plan and Guidelines and further information relating to HCDs can be found by using search term “HCD” at guelph.ca or going directly to
