Closing Date:	July 29, 2021

Applications are being accepted for a Council Remuneration and Support Advisory Committee members. (five members)

The City Council Remuneration and Support Advisory Committee provides you with an opportunity to review and analyze Council salaries, benefits, and staffing support. Based on this analysis the Council Remuneration and Support Advisory Committee will present its recommendations pertaining to Council compensation and support levels to Council during the first quarter of 2022.

Advisory committees, local boards, agencies, commissions and associations, help the City of Guelph listen and learn how to make Guelph a more inclusive, connected and prosperous city. As local government, we're reflecting on our role and the values that guide us to ensure our community is a welcoming place for everyone; Black, Indigenous, people of colour, people who identify as members of LGBTQ2+ community, those who have disabilities and other underrepresented groups.

Learning opportunities:

Whether you are a first-time volunteer or you have years of experience, you will:

- Learn more about local government.
- Participate in local government decision making.
- Give back to your community.

Meeting frequency

The five-member committee meets a minimum of three (3) times prior to February 2022.

Qualifications

- Applicants must be residents or owners of property in Guelph and at least 16 years of age or older.
- Additional consideration will be given to those applicants with experience or backgrounds in human resources, finance, compensation methodology or similar fields.

With few exceptions, those serving on a City board or committee are not eligible for appointment to another board or committee in the same term. City staff are not permitted to serve as members on a board or committee.

Further details on eligibility requirements are listed in Section B of the City's Public Appointment Policy.
